

MOSTLY MOTETS

PRESENTS

Two Concerts of Early Sacred Music

Mostly Motets is a small ensemble that sings sacred music from the Renaissance and earlier. The concert will last about an hour and consist of pieces we are performing for the first time as well as favorites from previous concerts. It will include music by composers such as: Byrd, Tallis, Palestrina, Victoria, Dufay, Desprez, and Frye as well as some Gregorian chant and Medieval polyphony.

3:00 p.m. Sunday May 14, 2006
Resurrection Church

303 Stony Point Road
Santa Rosa, California

(about two blocks north of
Highway 12 at the corner of Stony Point Road and West Third Street)

Admission free; donations welcome

3:00 p.m. Sunday May 7, 2006
Fort Ross Chapel

Fort Ross Historic State Park
19005 Coast Highway One,
Jenner, California

(about 12 miles north of Jenner on Highway One)

Free, except for park admission

And an Open Rehearsal

2:30 p.m. Sunday May 28, 2006

This is a rehearsal open to singers who might be interested in joining the group. For more information or to arrange to attend, please see the group's web site or contact the director, Steve Moore, at (707) 575-7400 or by email at music@vistaconsulting.com.

www.MostlyMotets.com